What did Richard do Last Weekend?

OliviaWong@yahoo.com.hk Last weekend I did a lot of things. On Saturday morning, my mom was not feeling well, so I decided to (A) make breakfast myself. I ate a loaf of bread only, and I fixed my mom some oatmeal, boiled egg and milk. (B) (C) After eating, I did the dishes, then did the laundry at 11.30. In the afternoon, mom felt much better, so she asked me to buy some groceries at Wellcome supermarket with her. I was so glad to be going out. (D) We stopped at McDonald's to get some lunch after doing the shopping. When we finished, we went back (E) home and relaxed. At 4 p.m., I also made paper models with the help of YouTube video. In the evening, I (F) started doing my homework at 7.00 p.m. and I went to bed early at 9.30. Next day, on Sunday, my uncle who lived right behind us came over because his neighbor was having a (G) party and had been making a noise all day long, which drove him crazy. He made a decision and took me to Disneyland Park. We went on a high adventure during a guided tour of the mysterious Jungle River Cruise, then experienced a colorful world tour at "It's a Small World", which is my all-time Disney favorite. We had a good time together. How about you? What did you do last weekend? Write soon. Richard Form groups of 4 and two groups are in pair. Group 1 will have some sentences selected from a corpus missing the verbs make and do. Group 2 will have the verbs make and do. Students in both groups will stand in lines facing each other. The group carrying verbs (Group 2) will take turns trying to pair the verbs with sentences the other one (Group 1) has by sticking the verbs to the sentences. Then write down the sentences which make most sense in students' own notebooks.

3. Pair Work. Collocation Analysis – Spot the errors
